Supporting the needs of our priests in the Diocese of Rockville Centre.

"Thanks to your support we were able to take over four more much needed apartments. They were filled before the fresh paint even dried! I am happy that so many of our retired priests want to live here. The fraternity of the priesthood, our prayer and meal times together, our social outings and the attention we are able to give to their varied medical needs, all combine to make this residence a special place for our senior priests. It is a unique privilege to care for these wonderful men."

- Rev. Msgr. Thomas Costa,
Vicar for Senior Priests

"Since I arrived here in November of 2018 – I have been treated with respect, dignity and concern for my well-being."

The retired priests residing at St. Pius X have given their lives to the Church, and your support ensures that they can receive the accommodation, special care and support they need in their retirement.
