STRENGTHENING BUSINESS – BUILDING COMMUNITY

Corporate Partnership Benefits

As a Corporate Partner you will receive:

- Welcome and introduction in our Newsletter and Social Media.
- Your logo and link on our website: www.drvc.org/CMA
- A full page journal ad for our end of the year “Thank You” brunch attended by more than 600 of our top donors, business leaders and corporate partners.
- Customizable opportunities for recognition and involvement in our Long Island community.

As a partner you will help us to help those who need it the most.

“I was fascinated with the great work that CMA provides to the residents of Long Island. We are proud to be part of the Corporate Partnership team that helps make these types of programs possible.”

- Thomas Garry, Partner of Harris Beach PLLC

Working with Long Island's Business Community to provide:

- Food for the Hungry
- Services to Veterans
- Affordable and Safe Housing
- Substance Abuse Programs

TODAY ON LONG ISLAND: THE HARSH REALITY

- Our regional poverty level has grown to 6.6 % - the highest since 1959. (L.I. Newsday)
- Nearly 300,000 on Long Island suffer from hunger, including more than 100,000 children. (L.I. Newsday)
- The elderly make up 4 percent of Long Island's hungry. (Long Island Cares)
- Approximately 35% of Long Island households are considered ALICE (Asset Limited Income Restrained and Employed) and they regularly turn to community pantries, such as local parish outreach programs for emergency and ongoing food assistance. (United Way)
- Over 38% of Long Island households spend more than 35% of their income on housing. That's an 11% rise since 2000. (Long Island Federation of Labor)
- On Long Island there are more than 3,900 people living in shelters or on the street. (Dept. of Housing and Urban Development)
- Of Long Island's 2.8 million people, more than 300,000 struggle with alcoholism or other drug addictions. (Long Island Council on Alcoholism and Drug Dependence)

"The way I was living my life, I should not be here today. Every morning I wake up I thank God for another day and for leading me to Catholic Charities' Talbot House."

- John, celebrating 8 years of sobriety

"The Parish Outreach Program has helped my children and me in so many ways, never judging – being like a family would be. Without this program we wouldn't have survived."

- Susan, single mother of 2

HOW YOU CAN HELP

Every year on Long Island, more than 150,000 people from diverse ethnic, racial, religious and social backgrounds turn to us for help.

Your Corporate Partnership in our work will help our Parish Outreach Programs and Catholic Charities continue to provide:

- More than 100,000 families with food, clothing, emotional and financial support annually.
- More than 240,000 hot, nutritious meals to homebound seniors annually.
- Crisis Center and Outpatient Clinics for those struggling with substance abuse.
- 2,600 units of safe, affordable housing to senior citizens and people with disabilities.
- Support networks for caregivers and those who are experiencing the loss of a loved one.

Please consider joining us in this important effort to help those who need it the most.
