Diocesan Schools' Success Creates New Opportunities: Substitute Teachers Wanted!

ROCKVILLE CENTRE, N.Y. – October 9, 2020 – If you are a teacher living on Long Island, the Diocese of Rockville Centre Department of Education has immediate substitute teaching opportunities!

“The overwhelming success of our full, all-students opening has created immediate opportunities for substitute teachers at schools across Nassau and Suffolk,” said Dr. Kathleen Walsh, Superintendent of Schools, Department of Education, Diocese of Rockville Centre. The 35 Diocesan elementary schools, who offer five-day-a-week in-person classes with simultaneous remote learning, are looking for qualified candidates to meet growing demand. Retired teachers, furloughed or laid-off teachers, and teachers who have completed their coursework and are awaiting certification are all invited to submit their resumes.

A qualified candidate would have the following preferred qualifications:

- Bachelor's Degree
- Valid New York State Teacher Certification (or on track to certification)
- Student teaching experience or its equivalent
- Supportive of the mission of the Catholic church

“Our students, our schools and our classrooms are welcoming places where everyone is treated with dignity and respect,” continued Dr. Walsh. “Catholic school is an uplifting experience for both teachers and students.” Qualified candidates should send a resume to
